AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 30th Day of June, 1752,

Their Excellencies the Lords Justices in Council.

WHEREAS their Excellencies the Lords Justices have received Information, that the Plague hath lately broke out within the State or Dominion of Algiers in Africa, and that great Numbers of Persons die daily thereof—Their Excellencies have therefore thought proper, for preventing the said Infection from being brought into this Kingdom, to Order, as it is hereby ordered, with the Advice of his Majesty's Privy Council, That the Quarantine of Forty Days, now subsisting by Orders of his Majesty in Council of the 18th of June 1747, and 28th of June 1749, upon all Ships and Vessels coming from any of the Ports in West Barbary upon the Atlantick Ocean, or from any of the Ports in the Streights of Gibraltar on the Barbary Coast; or any other of the Ports on that Coast in the Mediterranean, lying between the said Streights and Cape de las Tres Forcas in the Kingdom of Fez, be extended Eastward upon the African Coast, from the said Cape de las Tres Forcas to Cape Rufara in the Kingdom of Barca—And that all Ships and Vessels already arrived and not unladen, or that shall hereafter arrive in the Ports of this Kingdom, from any of the Ports or Places between the said two Capes, be put under the like Quarantine, and required to pursue the same Rules, Regulations, and Directions, as are contained in his Majesty's aforementioned Orders in Council:—And the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Lieutenant-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and his Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Lisbon, June 8. Last Saturday being the King's Birth-day, who then enter'd into the 38th Year of his Age, the same was celebrated at Court with great Magnificence; all the Foreign Ministers, Nobility and Gentry appearing in their richest Habits to compliment their Majesties on that Occasion. The two Men of War that have been equipping for some Time past in this Port, put to Sea a few Days ago for Mozambique; they are commanded by M. Masquez, who, 'tis said, has Orders to erect a new Fortrefs at the Mouth of the River Senna. The Barbary Corsairs have not lately appeared in such Numbers upon our Coasts as they did some Weeks ago, which is entirely attributed to the Care that is now taken in having a certain Number of armed Vessels constantly out a Cruizing.

Leghorn, June 23. The Maltese Gallies, which were returned into their own Port with two Algerine Chebecks lately taken by them in the Sardinian Seas, are put to Sea again, being reinforced with two Men of War, the one of 40, and the other of 30 Guns, and are sailed for the Coast of the Ecclesiastical State, where they are to join the Pope's Gallies, and then go together on a Cruize in Quest of the Barbary Corsairs, who continue greatly to interrupt the Navigation on that Coast. The Master of a Ship, which arrived in this Port on Wednesday last from Salonica, reports, that he had been informed by the Master of a Vessel he met at Sea, that the Differences between the French and the Trepolitans were as good as reconciled, the Dey having assured the French Minister, that the Regency were ready to give the King his Master all the Satisfaction that could be required; but no French Ships will venture to put to Sea from hence for the Levant, on that Information.

Chambery, June 28. In Conformity to the King's Orders, several Protestant Families, who lately resided at St. Victor and Chapitre, have retired from thence, some into Switzerland, and others into the Territories of the Republick of Geneva. The numerous Gang of Robbers, who who for a long Time infested this Dutchy, have now spread themselves into Upper and Lower Dauphine, where they commit the greatest Outrages, notwithstanding the late Execution of several of them at Grenoble.

Vienna, July 1. Last Tuesday an extraordinary Council was held at Court, at which their Imperial Majesties assisted, wherein 'tis said several important Resolutions were taken, at the breaking up of which a Courier was dispatched for Hanover; and on Wednesday in the Afternoon his Imperial Majesty, attended by several of the principal Lords of the Court, set out for Stammerstorff, in order to take the Diversion of Hunting in that Forest; but her Imperial Majesty being near her Time, has left off taking Diversions till after she is brought to Bed. The Military School established by the Empress at Neustadt will soon be opened, several of the young Gentlemen that are to be admitted being already named. The Regiment of Cuirassiers of Luchesi is expected here on Monday next, to replace that of Birkenfeldt, which is to march from hence the same Day for the Camp that is marked out in the Neighbourhood of Presbourg, where several other Regiments of Horse are already got together under the Command of Field Marshal Count Serbelloni. A few Days ago their Imperial Majesties honoured with their Presence the Marriage of Count Wurmbrand, one of the Lords of the Bed-Chamber, with the Countess de Bruner. Count Guicciardi, who has lately had the Command of the Fortrefs of Esseck in Esclavonia conferred on him, is preparing to set out from hence in order to take Possession of that important Post. We learn from Raab in Hungary, that a terrible Fire broke out last Week in that Town, which burnt with such Violence, that Seventy Houses were entirely reduced to Ashes before a Stop could be put to it.

Berlin, July 4. The King has made rich Presents to all the principal Persons who attended the Princess of Hesse to this Court, and ordered handsome Gratuities to the others. The Fireworks, which were play'd off at Charlottenbourg on that Princess's Marriage with Prince Henry, began at Nine o'Clock at Night, and lasted near two Hours. On the 28th their Majesties, and all the Royal Family, returned to this City; where, on Friday Morning last, the new married Couple received the Compliments of all the Nobility and Foreign Ministers. Although nothing can well surpass the Magnificence of the Entertainments which have already been given on this Occasion, yet the Feasts are still continued, the Prince of Prussia having given last Night a grand Supper and a Ball; To-morrow the Queen gives a grand Supper and a Ball at Schonhausen; and on Friday the Queen-Mother gives a grand Entertainment and a Ball to the whole Court at Montbijou. During all these Feastings and Rejoycings, the Gardens of the several Palaces have been beautifully illuminated. The Hereditary Prince of Hesse will, 'tis thought, take his Leave of this Court towards the End of the Week, in order to return to Cassel.

Hague, July 11. The States of Holland and Westfrizeland are to assemble To-morrow, for which Purpose most of the Members are already arrived. Her Royal Highness the Princess Governante has appointed the Baron de Schorrenbourg to be a Captain in the Regiment of Major General de la Riviere. The Journey her Royal Highness proposes taking to Dieren is put off for some Days, and 'tis imagined will not take Place till towards the End of the Month. Count Dehn, the Danish Minister, has notified in Form to her Royal Highness the Princess Governante, and to the Lords of this Government, the Conclusion of the Marriage of the King his Master with the Princess of Wolfembuttel; as has the Chevalier Mann, Minister from Hesse Cassel, that of the Princess of Hesse with Prince Henry, Second Brother to the King of Prussia.
